MODE OF ELECTION OF THE COUNCIL

Rule 11

The election of Officers and members of the Council shall take place in the following manner:

- (a) Any member of the Club may nominate a member or members, not exceeding the number of vacancies. The name of each member so nominated shall be notified in writing to the Secretary at least seven days preceding the Annual General Meeting.
- (b) Each candidate for election to the Council must be proposed and seconded by members entitled to vote. The nomination form must be signed by the candidate. A list of the nominations in alphabetical order shall be affixed to the notice board of the Club four days at least before the Annual General Meeting. When there are more candidates nominated than there are vacancies, the voting shall be by ballot and each member present at the Annual General Meeting shall be entitled to vote for any number of candidates not exceeding the number of vacancies. When there is not a sufficient number of candidates nominated in the manner provided for, the candidates duly nominated shall be deemed to be elected and the Council at its first meeting shall fill up the remaining vacancies by co-option. If by an equality of votes between two or more candidates a vacancy or vacancies remain undecided, the meeting shall select by a second ballot from such candidates the candidate or candidates who are to be the members of the Council and if there is an equal number of votes on such second ballot, the vacancy or vacancies shall be decided by lot.

- (c) The Convenors of all committees shall be selected from within the members of the Council. The Committees shall consist of a Convenor and not less than six other members and shall have power to co-opt members. All such committees must contain at least 3 members who are not members of the Council. Members selected for inclusion in committees must be subjected to Council for its approval. Committees shall meet at least six times during the year or more often as circumstances dictate or Council requires, all meetings to be minuted and reports submitted to Council for its approval. The Captain and Honorary Secretary are ex-officio members of all committees
- (d) Any Member of the Council who fails to attend three successive meetings may be called upon by the Council to give an explanation in writing and if he fails to do so, or if his explanation is considered unsatisfactory, he shall cease to be a member of Council.

POWER OF COUNCIL

Rule 12

The Council shall have full power to make such recommendations to a General Meeting of members of the Club as it may consider necessary.

The Council shall have full control of the finances of the Club, the engaging and dismissing of all servants or agents of the Club, and all such administrative powers as may be necessary for carrying out the objects and works of the Club, in accordance with these rules. The Council may appoint Committees and delegate to any such Committee any of its powers except the election, suspension or expulsion of members. The Council shall have power to delegate to the Committee of the Lady Members such matters as may be found necessary from time to time for such Committee to deal with in the interests of the Club.

The Council of the Club may borrow any amount not exceeding the sum of £650,000 on a continuing basis on current account or otherwise, for such period as the Council of the Club shall decide. Any borrowing in excess of £650,000 shall be approved by the Club in general meeting.

LADY MEMBERS

Rule 13

The Lady Members of the Club may transact such business as may be delegated to the Ladies' Committee by the Council. They shall be subject to all the rules and bye-laws of the Club save where otherwise stated. There shall be a Ladies' Committee, consisting of the Ladies' President, Captain, Hon. Secretary, Vice-Captain, Hon. Treasurer and nine other ladies to be elected by the Lady Members at the Annual General Meeting of the Ladies' Branch, which must be held not later than the month of February in each year. This Committee — four to form a quorum — shall meet periodically, to transact such business as may be referred to it by the Council. The Ladies' Committee shall have no power to incur expense or to enter into any contract binding the Club without the sanction of the Council.

CATEGORIES OF MEMBERSHIP

Rule 14

The Council shall have power to allow all members detailed in the categories below the use of the course upon such terms and under such conditions as it may from time to time determine. The term "Junior" means those under 18 years of age on 1st March each year.

Council shall have power to create new categories of membership as and when circumstances dictate.

- (a) A full member is a lady or gentleman member over 18, on the 1st of March, who is paying the full subscription and for whom a levy is being paid to Golfing Union of Ireland. He/she has the right to attend and vote at General Meetings and to enjoy all the privileges and obligations attaching to him/her as such. For the purpose of this rule a person is regarded as a full member notwithstanding the provisions of rule 16(b).
- (b) A full member in good standing, may apply to Council for Social Membership for the spouse or partner of the full member.
- (c) A Lady Associate member is a person duly elected as such to the Ladies Branch (see rule 13).
- (d) A student or apprentice is a person who is over the age of 18 on 1st March, who is in receipt of Full Time Education and or full time training at Secondary, Technical College, Grammar, Further Education or Higher Education Level and whose Course follows on in the normal time cycle. Part-time, Day Release or Adult In-Service Courses are excluded from the qualifying criteria.
- (e) Overseas members are Former Members who have found themselves domiciled outside the jurisdiction of the Golfing Union of Ireland by virtue of their profession or occupation and who wish to maintain a continuous membership link with the Club. Such membership will afford the member the same facilities and privileges as enjoyed by Country Members.
- (f) (i) A juvenile is a male or female in Full Time Education or Training who is aged over 14 years but less than 18 years of age on the 1st of March.
- (ii) A junior is a male or female member who is less than 14 years of age on the 1st March.

- (a) Rates of subscriptions, levies and any other monies pertinent to and payable as a condition of holding membership shall be determined by Annual General or Special General Meetings from time to time.
- (b) All subscriptions for the current year shall be due on the 1st March. In the event of a subscription not having been paid by 31st March, the rights and privileges of membership shall be automatically terminated and shall be restored on application to Council under supervision of Rule 18 (election of members).
For the purpose of the application of this rule a member's subscription shall be deemed to be paid if the member has an arrangement with the Honorary treasurer (membership) for payment by instalments under conditions pertinent at that time.
- (c) For all domestic competitions the entry fee must be paid on or before the stipulated entry day. Failure to comply with this requirement will result in disqualification.

LIFE MEMBERSHIP

Rule 17

Life membership shall be available at the discretion of Council.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS

Rule 18

- (a) The name and address of a person proposed as an ordinary member of the Club, together with the names of the proposer and seconder shall be displayed in a conspicuous place in the Club premises for at least one week before election and an interval of not less than one week shall elapse between the nomination and election of the ordinary member. Intending members shall submit the appropriate subscription together with the application. (This subscription shall be refunded if the application is not accepted by Council.) Note — Council will not consider the application unless this condition is complied with by applicant.
- (b) If persons other than temporary members are elected as members by a procedure which does not comply with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, they shall not be admitted to any of the privileges of membership until the expiration of a period of at least two days from their election to membership.
- (c) Where a vacancy on the membership list arises, due to the death or resignation of a paid up full member, then that vacancy shall be offered to the son, daughter or wife of the said member, provided that written application is made to the Honorary Secretary within three months of the death or resignation of the full member. The application shall be accompanied by the relevant subscription and shall be subject to the normal ratification of Council.

Rule 19

The election of any members (except honorary members) is vested solely in the Council and shall be by ballot or by a show of hands as the Council shall from time to time decide. Only those who have rendered exceptional service to the Club or the game of golf, or whose distinguished or influential position of public service, would render their membership of special advantage to the Club, shall be elected honorary member. They may be elected for life, or for any defined period, but unless it is otherwise stated in the Minute made on the occasion of their election, their membership shall terminate at the close of the current year. The Secretary of the Club shall also be eligible for election as an honorary member for such period as shall be defined at the time of his election, and such membership shall terminate when he shall cease to hold the office of secretary. Honorary membership shall also be given to the President and Lady President during their respective terms of office. The election of honorary members shall only be on a two-thirds majority of those present and voting at a general meeting of the Club, notice of the proposal having been given in the circular convening the meeting.

Rule 20

On the admission of a new member, the Secretary shall inform him of his election, furnishing him with a copy of the Rules of the Club. No applicant, until elected and duly notified of said election shall use the course or participate in any of the advantages or privileges of membership.

RESIGNATION

Rule 21

Anyone desiring to withdraw from the Club must send his or her resignation in writing to the Secretary prior to the 1st March in any year, in default of which he or she shall be liable for the subscription for the year.

RECOVERY OF DEBTS DUE TO THE CLUB

Rule 22

The Secretary for the time being shall be authorised to sue on behalf of the Club, when directed by the Council to do so, and the minutes of the meeting at which direction is given shall, when confirmed, be evidence of such authority.

Rule 23

A visitor, on payment of the prescribed fee, may use the course, but before playing he shall enter in a book provided, the date of such visit, his name, address, club (if any), and the amount of fee paid, he shall then be subject to such conditions as are required by the Club Rules.

A visitor, having a lesson from the Professional, shall not be liable to green fees during the time of such lesson. If he wishes to use the course outside the time of such lesson he will be liable to the usual green fees.

Rule 24
